Acts 13:13-15 <sup>13</sup> Now when Paul and his party set sail from Paphos, they came to Parga in Pamphylia; and John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> But when they departed from Parga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat down. <sup>15</sup> And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Men and brethren, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, say on."

- What transition do we see in verse 13?
- What do we know of Pamphylia and Pisidia?
- Why did John Mark depart from them?
- Why is there no mention of Paul preaching in Parga?
- Did they return to Antioch from where their journey began?
- What is the order of the service in the synagogue?
