History of the Land

- During biblical times, Gaza was part of the land promised to the Jews by God but never part of the land actually conquered and inhabited by them according to Nili Wazana at Hebrew University.
- Philistines were not semitic but rather descendants of the Casluchim in Genesis 10:14. They were known as a seafaring nation originating in Crete and arriving in Canaan about 12 Century BC.
- Today, Palestinians are primarily of Arab descent from centuries of intermarrying with the Canaanites and align with the Shiite Muslims.
- Kamietsky shares that the Gaza Strip is every bit as holy as the rest of the Land of Israel, but it was not settled during the second Temple period, when Jews returned from exile in Babylon. Because of this, Jews were permitted to eat from crops harvested there during their shmita or sabbatical (7th) year when fruits and vegetables are not cultivated in the Land of Israel according to Jewish Law.

Matthew 24:3-14³ As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"⁴ And Jesus answered them, "See that no one leads you astray.⁵ For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and they will lead many astray.⁶ And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, for this must take place, but the end is not yet.⁷ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places.⁸ All these are but the beginning of the birth pains.⁹ Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake.¹⁰ And then many will fall away and betray one another and hate one another.¹¹ And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray.¹² And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold.¹³ But the one who endures to the end will be saved.¹⁴ And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.
